

“Is not My Word like fire?”

With this issue’s readings we begin in earnest to read the writings of the Bible’s major prophets. Among these is Jeremiah, a prophet who had the unenviable task of prophesying the coming exile of Israel. It’s not always a job he wanted, he notes, but the importance of speaking (and hearing) God’s Word was greater than his own discomfort. He writes: “His Word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot (Jeremiah 20:9)”

“Since the Church has been born of the Divine Word, there is no doubt but that she must be nourished by the same.”

- Philip Melancthon
