

“The Word of the Lord spread...”

In this issue's readings, we pass through the rest of the Gospels, the first of which we began in the previous issue. From there, we learn the history of the early Church as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. At its core, the book is a record of the spread of the Gospel message: “The Word of God continued to spread, and there were many new believers” (Acts 12:24; cf. 6:7 and 19:20). Where the Word is proclaimed, faith follows. May the Holy Spirit strengthen us to share His saving Word with others too!
