

Together in Concord

With this issue, we come to the end of our readings from the Book of Concord.

But study of the Lutheran Symbols is a life-long discipline; we benefit from regular reading of these works. Grounded in the Scriptures and to the teachings of the Church down through the ages, they point us ever back to Christ. In the end, it is Jesus—in His death and resurrection—that is our true and lasting confession.

“By God’s grace, with intrepid hearts, we are willing to appear before the judgment seat of Christ with this Confession and give an account of it. We will not speak or write anything contrary to this Confession, either publicly or privately.”
